

For Immediate Release

27th Edition of "Who's Who in American Art" to include profile of Massachusetts' artist Jeff Fioravanti

Lynn, MA (August 7, 2006) – Artist Jeff Fioravanti is pleased to announce that he has been selected to be included in the 27th edition (2007-2008) of "Who's Who in American Art" produced bi-annually by Marquis Who's Who of New Providence, New Jersey. "Who's Who in American Art" contains biographical information of more than 12,000 of the most noteworthy men and women in today's visual art world, as well as the most notable artists from America's past. Long considered one of the best reference guides in the visual arts industry, "Who's Who in American Art" is an essential and valuable component for individuals, collectors, galleries, and any others with either a passing or full fledge interest in current practicing or past American artists. Possessing a long-standing level of respect and integrity, inclusion in "Who's Who in American Art" is based solely on merit, with awards, exhibitions, memberships, articles, collections, and other criteria forming the foundation upon which to determine an artist's qualifications.

Artist Jeff Fioravanti is an award winning pastel artist who is noted for his evocative landscapes and seascapes depicting the pristine beauty of America. A signature member of several highly respected art organizations, he was recently feature in the November 2005 issue of American Artist Magazine, and has also appeared in Marquis Who's Who in America since 2003. To learn more about this artist, or to view a sampling of his work, please visit him online at www.fioravanti-fineart.com. You may also contact the artist directly at 781-595-5961.

###